DAY 8 – Excursion to Tupelo (30 Apr Tuesday)

Continental Breakfast

Today you will feel like a part of Memphis as you experience this amazing city on your guided city sightseeing tour. Your guide knows Memphis history like no one else, like the inside, “backstage” stories from the folks who were there, as well as those hard-to-find, hidden Elvis sites (his Lauderdale Courts Apartment, Humes High School, the Overton Park Shell, places where he worked and played, and many others). You’ll hear your favorite Elvis songs along with entertaining stories about Elvis, his family, and the city he called home. For music lovers, a visit to the STAX MUSEUM of American Soul Music is next. Stax celebrates great Memphis soul music made famous by Otis Redding, Booker T and the MGs, Aretha Franklin, and others. Afterward, we journey to Tupelo to visit Elvis’ Birthplace and Museum, a small, 2-room house built by the singer’s father, Vernon Presley. You will also visit the Elvis Presley Museum, featuring “Remembrance of Things Past,” an exhibit displaying memorabilia from Elvis’ childhood.

DAY 9 – Memphis - Excursion to Graceland (1 May Wednesday)

Continental Breakfast

Today is dedicated to a guided audio tour of Graceland, the Mansion tour consists of the living room, music room, Elvis’ parents’ bedroom, the dining room, kitchen, TV room, pool room and “jungle den” in the man house. Behind the house are Elvis’ racquetball building and his original business office. You will also see his trophy building, which houses his enormous collection of gold records, awards, and career mementoes. Recently opened is a section of the mansion with never –before-seen items, such as the desk from his personal office and an extensive collection of his stage costumes. The tour ends with a quiet visit to the Meditation Garden, where Elvis and members of his family have been laid to rest. You’ll also be able to board ‘The King’s” private jet.

DAY 10 – Memphis (2 May Thursday)

Continental Breakfast

Start your day with a visit to Sun Studio, probably the most famous recording studio in the world, where Rock 'n' Roll was first recorded. Hear outtakes from sessions, touch Elvis' first microphone, see memorabilia, and relive the history of the studio that launch the careers of Johnny Cash, BB King, Roy Orbison, Carl Perkins, Jerry Lee Lewis, and many other music legends. Then, on to the Rock N Soul Museum, which traces Memphis' cultural and musical past. The remainder of your day is at leisure, so maybe shop for souvenirs on Beale Street; visit the National Civil Rights Museum, housed in the Lorraine Motel and site of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King J.; or sample some famous Memphis barbecue.

DAY 11 – Memphis – Nashville (3 May Friday)

Continental Breakfast

Today we head to Nashville – "Music City USA". No one told a story quite like Johnny Cash, and that tradition continues as you settle in for a PRIVATE PERFORMANCE and discussion with Johnny and June's only son, John Carter Cash. John Carter will entertain you with his own original music, as well as a few numbers made famous by his legendary family, and he'll even be available for photographs and autographs afterward. Your day doesn't end here! Get behind the scenes of the music industry by visiting the COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME with its glittering costumes, rare instruments, and Elvis Presley's 'solid-gold' Cadillac.

DAY12 – Nashville (4 May Saturday)

Stay @ Nashville Millennium Maxwell House Hotel

Own breakfast

Nashville is the ideal destination for music fans, history buffs, and Southern lovers alike. Start your day with a visit to STUDIO B, Nashville's oldest surviving recording studio and one of the country's most important studios. Between 1957 and 1977, more than 35,000 songs were recorded here, including 262 Elvis Presley recordings. Studio B is a "must-see" for any music fan, but especially for those who love Elvis. You even have the chance to make your own recording and take it home with you. Afterward, enjoy a sightseeing tour of the city, passing by famous Music Row recording studios, the centre of the recording industry, which first developed in the 1950s. Tonight, see an unforgettable show at the world famous GRAND OLE OPRY, the world's premier country music venue since 1925 and the setting for the nation's longest-running music show.

DAY13 – Nashville (5 May Sunday)

Own breakfast

Today is at leisure to explore more of this vibrant city. You may choose to visit the historic Ryman Auditorium, restored home of the Grand Ole Opry from 1943-1974. Perhaps visit the Hermitage, home of Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States. You'll have an opportunity to view the fully restored mansion, walk through the gardens and see the tomb of the late president.
